Insights from Abroad

• An enjoyable evening of song and fund-raiser was held in La Varenne, France in memory of David Nathan. The evening, organized by Myriam Nathan on behalf of the Institute, was well attended and a huge success.

• Harry Roedner, Chairman of our Friends committee in Norway and wife Myriam were recently honored guests at the Institute when they came to present a bequest from the late Mrs. Gerd Randi Reanestad of Kristiansand and her sister Liv Marie Syvertsen. These two sisters were longtime friends and supporters of the Institute, and we offer our condolences and prayers to their friends and families.

Their generous donation will be put to good use for the new dormitory. The sisters will be fondly remembered at the Jewish Institute for the Blind.

• In a musical ceremony marking the donation, the Institute welcomed Norwegian Ambassador to Israel, Svein Saether, as well as several former Israeli ambassadors to Norway. Israel's Minister of Diaspora Affairs Rabbi Michael Melchior was unable to attend the ceremony but he was represented by his wife Hanna. Until recently, Rabbi Melchior served as Chief Rabbi of Norway.
