Insights from Abroad

The Danish Friends of the Institute, Venner af Blindeinstituttet I Jerusalem, have an enthusiastic supporter in Carmi Gillon, Israeli Ambassador to Denmark. In a heartwarming letter that helped to launch the Chanukah appeal, Gillon expressed his support for the Jewish Institute for the Blind.

Active members of the Danish Friends organization are Milton and Daniella Rothschild as well as Birte Bune Smith.

A successful fund-raising dinner on the theme of Jerusalem was held in La Varenne, France on the evening of February 9, 2002. A rousing success, the evening was organized by Myriam Nathan and friends, and proceeds were donated to the Jewish Institute for the Blind. Guests at the dinner included the Chief Rabbi of Paris David Messas, Rabbi Avraham Messas of La Varenne, Rabbi Michael Azulai of La

Varenne and Institute Director Chaim Reshelbach.

A meeting of the trustees of the British Aid Committee of the Jewish Institute for the Blind was held in London in February 2002. Attending the meeting were Professor Gerald J. Goodhardt, Mrs. Ruth Hollander, and Mr. Arie L. Handler. During the meeting, trustees expressed their appreciation for the work of committee chairman Ronnie Khan.
