*Louie Kiley of Newton, Massachusetts just wrote to the Institute with an idea that he recently put into practice for his bar mitzvah. Kiley chose some of his favorite books and recorded them to donate to the Jewish Institute for the Blind as well as the Perkins School for the Blind in Massachusetts. He also had some of the books translated into Braille publications for the enjoyment of the children. 'Novel' idea, Louie! Thanks.

*A hearty thanks to 95-year-old Bertha Schapiro of Copenhagen who was introduced to the activities of the Jewish Institute for the Blind by Milton Rothschild, chairman of the Danish Friends. She was moved by the Institute's work and sent in a welcome contribution of 50,000 Danish crowns. The fund-raising campaign of the Friends of the Institute in Denmark was initiated with a letter of praise from Jakob Rytter, former Danish ambassador to Israel.
